The UWA Pantomime Society
Presents

The GREEK BAD & THE GODLY

May 7, 8 and 9
Semester 1, 2015
Dolphin Theatre
What is Panto?

PantoSoc has a proud history of putting on high-quality productions at UWA since 2003. The pantomime style dates back to classical theatre. It is a traditional British form of theatre that features audience interaction, so feel free to heckle with phrases such as “He’s behind you!” and “Oh no you’re not!”

Keep in Touch!

We perform three original shows every year: one each semester, and a family-friendly Christmas show in December, with proceeds going to charity, because we’re nice guys.

To keep up to date with our latest events, add us on Facebook or visit uwapanto.com.au. We also have a Youtube with past shows and behind the scenes extras over at youtube.com/uwapanto. You can email us anytime at uwapanto@gmail.com with any questions!

All the panto members who helped with ticket selling, flyer bombing, facebook sharing, and tav partying. This show could not be promoted without you.
Smithissism is the pursuit of gratification from vanity or egotistic admiration of one’s own attributes. The term originate from the Greek mythology, where the young Liam fell in love with his own image reflected in a pool of water.

I CATCH THE PAPER BOY

The Greek, The Bad and The Godly

The latest craze for teen cowboy romance movies is sweeping through Hollywood, and now Mt Olympus is involved as well! From film director to Greek gods, everyone wants to know whether or not the leads are really, well, you know, doing it. This comedy of errors follows all your favourites from mythology – Zeus, Hera, Artemis and hey, is that Dionysus drinking again? – as they try to control the celebrities according to their whims. The gods have made a bet that only everyone else can lose.

Ana Neves // Hera
Ana has been in 34 Broadway productions, including Rent, The Book of Mormon, and Hello Dolly. She is soon going to be in An Act of God, starring as Jim Parson’s body. With 9 Oscars and 16 Tonys under her belt, she’s vying for a Grammy in the next awards season. The Golden Globe she will receive for her performance in this production is dedicated to her beloved cat, a famous neurosurgeon.

Ben Reynolds // Atlas, Camera Guy
Atlas originally planned to deliver his lines from China, via skype, while doing a handstand, but the 1m31s handstand world record made this goal unrealistic.

Corin Rowell // Desperate Hopeful #1
As fun as boiling a potato in the dark.

Wesley Simkin // Eros

Sundown More Like Sunrise
This Western Certainly Brightened my Day

The movie of the year, Sundown has just enough witty lines, drama and thigh action to make a compelling story. Tanning Chatum, new Hollywood favourite, plays the beautiful cowboy Willem LeKid beautifully, giving all the other A-listers a run for their money. Stella is played by newly appointed Starbucks ambassador Venti Grande, who is loved both on screen and off by people all over the world. Chemistry between these two characters on screen is like no other. It almost feels as though Cupid himself paired the two together. Great acting from all involved, definitely worth the $13.50 for a ticket, and the additional college tuition fund for popcorn and a coke at the movies. ★★★★★

Jono Astbury // Flint Westwood
Likely to be a direct descendant of Zeus but then again, statistically, so is everybody.

Jon Barkla // Claude Colbert
Jon is nothing but a man who cared enough to try ... except with this bio #stolen.

Cam Butler // Voice Over Guy, Chauvinist Pig, Billy Ray Cyrus, Scout
Fun fact: The band One Direction was named for the fact that all five-four of its members are only able to perform the ‘Helicopter Dick’ in one direction: clockwise.
